Description

Working at home can be a pain in more ways than one, but with the Brassex Eclipse ergonomic high-back executive gaming chair, it won't be a pain in the back anymore. This contemporary office chair provides comfort and durability through a fabric/mesh combination, built-in tilt mechanism, gas lift, and curved armrests.

FEATURES

- High-back chair and headrest provide support all the way up your spine
- Built-in tilt mechanism and gas lift let you properly align your entire body to your work space
- Pedestal base features 5 sturdy legs for stability, each with a rolling castor for 360-degree maneuvering around the office
- Fabric/mesh combination allows for breathability to keep you cool when you have to sit for long periods on warm days
